OF GREAT IMPORTANCE.

There will be a very important election held in this county next Saturday. A great moral question is to be tried before the people. It is a question vital to all interests and all classes. It should be and is a great privilege, as well as a great duty we have as voters, to say by our vote that we are in favor of casting out the evil of strong drink from our county, our community, our homes and firesides. Men, voters do you realize how important this election is? Do you realize what it means for your wives, your daughters, your sons and the peace of your families? If you don't, wake up to it. The women and children of this land have borne the burdens of strong drink long enough, and it is time for us who have the power in our ballot to relieve them. They are the burden bearers and the sufferers from the evils of whisky. We men know it—those of us who have our eyes open. Now let us show our manhood next Saturday. Walk to the polls and put in a vote that will lift the sorrows from our women and save our boys. Vote! vote! vote next Saturday for temperance.

Don't miss an opportunity to help along your neighbor or your community. Put your shoulder to the wheel and help a good thing when you have a chance. You may be getting along all right yourself, "whisky," you say, "don't bother you, if people will let it alone, it won't hurt you!" But it does hurt them. It hurts everybody. You have a chance next Saturday to help the poor fellow who hasn't the will-power you have, by taking the evil from him. Help him by your vote. It will make you a better man to help a little now and then for those who live around you. Vote for temperance next Saturday.

No man in this county who knows Mr. Andrew Crawford, of Stephensport, believes for a moment that he ever had a thought much less said that he was in favor of the open saloon. No man in the county stands higher for all that is good and true in man than does Mr. Crawford. For thirty years the News has been going in and out of his home and town and never a word have we heard derogatory to his character. It shows how low down the whisky element gets. It will say or do anything to carry its point. Vote against it next Saturday.

We heard a mighty good young Democrat, born and bred and brought up in the faith, say the other day that things were good enough for him, and he didn't want a change and was going to vote for Taft. And there is a great big silent element that is thinking and intend to do what this young Democratic farmer will do.

The young Democracy is showing itself in this town. It is all right. If you believe a thing, young men, stand for and shout for it. We are sorry to see them tho', losing their good time and energies on a lost cause.

Ben Johnson and the Fourth District.

It will hardly be possible for Congressman Ben Johnson to make an active canvass in the Fourth district this fall. He is chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee and is now actively engaged in the campaign in Kentucky. He will devote most of his time to the interests of Mr. Bryan and the ticket; therefore, he cannot actively push his own candidacy. The Sun believes that the Democrats of the Fourth district will not permit Mr. Johnson's interests to be neglected. While he is making a fight for the party in Kentucky, we believe that the Democrats in each of the counties of the Fourth district will be active in Mr. Johnson's interests, and that they will not fail to assist him while he is spending his time and energies to increase Mr. Bryan's vote in every section of Kentucky.

Mr. Johnson has made a sacrifice for his party—one that few men would have made, and we are quite sure that the Democrats of the district will be duly appreciative.

It is confidently believed that Mr. Johnson's majority will be the largest ever given a Democrat for Congress in the Fourth district. There are many Republicans who will vote for him realizing that in him they have a safe, brainy and energetic representative in Congress—a representative who will look to the interests of all, regardless of party affiliations.

At this time when the farmers of the nation are pleading for just laws at the hands of our Republicans in Congress, it is important that the biggest, brainiest and best men of every State be sent to Washington as the representative of the people. We need men who know how to do things—those things which means the betterment of the masses. Nobody doubts that Mr. Johnson is in that class. It is the ambition of his life to help those who need help.

Both in public and private life his energies, money and time have been spent in an effort to assist people to better conditions—to help them over the rough ways of life. Ask any man or woman in Bardstown to tell you something about Ben Johnson's efforts to "build up" in the interest of the people and you will be told that for thirty years he has made a determined, honest and manly fight to bring about results which would help the people to overcome obstacles and to turn them toward progress, contentment and happiness.

What a happy day it will be when both houses of our national congress are filled with such men. Indeed if that day ever come, it will be a day of "equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none—a day in which the honest brawn of the American farmer and the American laborer will be as much thought of as the tainted millions of Wall street.

Let the Democrats of every county of the Fourth district increase Mr. Johnson's majority by determined tireless work. He deserves an increased majority, not only because he is now spending his time in working for the national ticket, but because he is now, and has always spent his time in, working for People.—Springfield Sun.

The Tariff and the Farmer.

The farmer does not agree with Candidate Bryan that the Tariff is such a vicious affair, for it protects him from competition with cheaper outside products.

These are some of the duties which have been of great advantage to the farmer that Mr. Bryan does not approve of:

Cattle, if less than one year old, $5 per head; all other cattle if valued at more than $14 per head, $3.75 per head, if valued at more than $14 per head, 27 1/2 per cent. ad valorem.

Swine, $1.50 per head.

Horses valued at $150 or less per head, $30 per head; if valued at over $150, 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Sheep, one year old or over, $1.50 per head; less than one year old, 75 cents per head.

Now, he who raises live animals for sale—cattle, swine, horses or sheep for the market—is protected from the competition of our Canadian neighbors to the extent shown in these schedules.

When it comes to the produce this is what we find in the Dingley law as a means of keeping the home market for our own farmers:

Corn, 15 cents per bushel of 56 pounds.

Oats, 15 cents per bushel.

Wheat, 25 cents per bushel.

Butter 6 cents per pound.

LIST OF PROMINENT AMERICANS.

Gen. W. H. Parsons, Confederate Army, ex-State Senator, Texas.
Col. Bailey, of Washington, D. C., Labor Organizations and U. V. L.
Col. Patten, of Washington, D. C., Military and Masonic Orders.
Hon. R. S. Ryan, of Alaska, Ex-Member English House of Parliament.
Congressman Cole, of Alaska, well known on Pacific Slope.

Gen. W. H. Parsons.

Gen. W. H. Parsons is ex-State Senator and ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, also Brigadier General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the la grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week. It is especially good in toning up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of her Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peruna as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy."

Col. Wm. Bailey.

William Bailey, 581 St., N. E., Washington, D. C., Past Col. Enc. No. 69, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and Secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Within a short period he has been persuaded to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. Washington climate is notoriously bad for kidney and liver troubles, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, when the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it so chooses, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.—Wm. Bailey.

Col. C. L. Patten.

Col. C. L. Patten, 509 T St., N. W., Washington, D. C., a Lieutenant in the Old Guard, an exclusive organization composed of soldiers of distinction who fought in the civil war, and a Thirty-second degree Mason, writes as follows: "I have used Peruna, and desire to recommend your remedy as an invigorating spring tonic; also one of the best remedies that I ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. R. S. Ryan.

Hon. R. S. Ryan, now residing in Nome, Alaska, was formerly a member of the English House of Parliament, and Secretary to the late Irish patriot, Charles Stewart Parnell. His Washington address is New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C. He writes: "I have used Peruna and can recommend your remedy as a very effective cure for colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. Thomas Cale.

Hon. Thomas Cale, elected to Congress from Alaska, is well known on the Pacific slope, where he has resided. His Washington address is 1312 9th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. He writes: "I can cheerfully recommend Peruna as a very efficient remedy for coughs and colds."

For Thirteen Acres--A Marvelous Harvest Gathered by Scott Knott on His Fields near Webster

A man who makes hay while the sun shines is Scott Knott, who owns a farm of thirteen acres near Webster. From all reports he must plow a little in the moonlight. Mr. Knott has sold $433.78 worth of tobacco, and realized the following amounts from other resources as follows:—Hogs $96.86; Chickens $63.30; Eggs $12.00; Potatoes $96.00; Fruit and Vegetables $16.00; Total amount $647.94; besides a living for a family, self, wife and six children. This is what one can call good farming, intense farming, such as can be done on most any of the farms in Breckenridge County. It proves clearly that it is not the fault of the lands, but is all in the man and the knowing how to work. Mr. Knott has three acres in corn this year that will make him 300 bushels.

Breckenridge Cattle Raiser Wins Three Championships at Kentucky State Fair

Walter R. Moorman, Jr., should be given a pat on the shoulder by every farmer in Breckenridge for his wonderful success in raising around the hills of Glendane cattle that draw sixteen prizes at one fair.

W. R. Moorman's & Sons' cattle won three championships in Louisville last week, and it is said, the premiums given them amounted to $350.

Immediately after the Fair closed Walter Moorman, Jr. left the city with his stock for Nashville to attend the Tennessee State Fair. Next week he will take his "Orange King" to the State Fair in Illinois.
